1. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned APP for respondent no.7/State.

2. The complaint, no doubt, shows that in the second marriage between Dipak s/o Narayan Pawar (accused no.1) and Pratibha (accused no. 2), accused nos.3 to 7 took active part and Accused no.8 acted as Priest. However the verification contains only one sentence to the effect that the complainant learnt from Ramesh s/o Udhavrao Randhare that her husband remarried. Thus there was nothing wrong on the part of the learned Magistrate to have issued process only against accused nos.1 and 2. I find no merit in the petition. The same is, therefore, dismissed in limine.
